

Inclusive Martial Arts Webinar Series

There is an unprecedented movement towards inclusion within martial arts, as part of the wider human rights agenda in and through sport. As part of UNESCO ICM's MARIE programme, we are offering a series of webinars and Q&A sessions, featuring panellists from around the world. We will discuss various perspectives related to the inclusion of people with disabilities and women and girls.

This series is open to all martial artists and coaches from all of the arts.
